

THE MARKETS.

STOCKS.

New York, Dec. 10.—Bar silver 95¢. Copper—Dull and nominal; lake December, $11.

Lead—Unchanged; domestic, $3.85.

Stocks showed more animation in the unlisted department to-day than for some time past. The general market displayed a steady hardening tendency throughout the greater portion of the day, but late in the afternoon money advanced to 15, occasioning a loss of the improvement recorded during the earlier portion of the day. The great feature of the day's trading was sugar refineries, which opened down over 1 per cent, and further declined about 6½ per cent. The cause is to be looked for in the opening of Spreckels' refinery, which have been operations, and this induced a flood of stock to come out. Final changes are about equally divided between gains and losses. Government dull and steady.

Pearlins opened steady at 1.03%, but after running up to the market turned and declined to 1.02%, closing dull at 1.02%.

Government bonds, 4%, 5%, 6%, 10½%, Northern Pacific, 5½%, 6%, 6½%, Oregon Improvement, 6½%, Navigation, 10%, Transcontinental, 3½%, Union Pacific, 6½%.

Money on call light at 5%; closed at 15 bid, prime mercantile, 50¢; 60¢; Sterling exchange, 50¢; steady sixty-day bills, $4.60%; demand, $4.80.
